

ATHS National Convention & Truck Show makes its debut in Reno in two short weeks

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (May 25, 2023) – Reno, Nevada will be bustling in just two weeks with more than 800 trucks arriving for the ATHS National Convention & Truck Show. “We have 700 trucks pre-registered and expect another 150 to 200 to register onsite. Onsite registrations begin at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, June 6. It’s not too late to bring that old truck you love — running, not running, small or large, we appreciate them all,” said ATHS Convention Manager Lea Ann Reed. “Since 2020 when Covid hit, our event attendance numbers have gradually increased each year, bouncing back to where we were pre-Covid. Being in Reno, where there’s lots to do and see has helped boost registration!” she said.
