

ATHS National Convention & Truck Show Rolling into Reno, Nevada Soon

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (May 17, 2023) – The American Truck Historical Society will host its National Convention & Truck Show in Reno, Nevada from June 8-10, 2023.

Spectators can expect to see hundreds of historic trucks of all shapes and sizes on display at the Grand Resort Hotel & Casino, 2500 E 2nd St., Reno, Nevada. “The National Convention & Truck Show is much more than just a truck show. You’ll find 15 Learning Sessions presented to entertain and educate guests as well as family and kids’ activities, for example. And new this year — a spectacular Light Show! There is something for everyone,” said Laurence Gratton, Executive Director.

Register as a convention attendee or to display a truck(s) at the show at ATHS.org/Convention or by calling 816-891-9900. Pre-registration ends May 19. After May 19, register onsite. Registrants can choose from packages that include admission to the Kickoff Casino Party and Awards Dinner, truck show passes, and more. ATHS will begin taking onsite registrations on Tuesday, June 6.

The ATHS National Convention & Truck Show is open to the public, June 8-10. Daily gate admittance is $15/adult (kids 12 and under are free) and includes the Truck Show, Vendor Expo, and Learning Sessions. Pre-sales can be purchased online ATHS.org/Convention beginning June 1.
